Vendor Partnership, Service & Settlement Agreement

Draft agreement for vendor onboarding, service performance, revenue sharing and financial settlement.

IMPORTANT: This is a commercial draft prepared for operational use and should be reviewed and finalized by qualified legal counsel before execution.

What This Agreement Covers

ONBOARDING & DOCUMENTS — Verification required

PAN/Aadhaar, GST, bank proof, vehicle RC, insurance and permits are verified before approval.

PAYMENTS & SETTLEMENT — Per your dashboard terms

Revenue share, fees and payment cycle are communicated via the vendor dashboard and booking confirmation.

SUSPENSION & TERMINATION — For cause, with notice

Document/fraud concerns, safety issues or material breach can trigger suspension or termination.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION — Good-faith first

Disputes are first discussed in good faith, then arbitration/lawful process under Indian law.

This Vendor Partnership, Service & Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made on [Effective Date] between:

1. TransRentals: [Legal Entity Name], having its registered office at [Registered Address], CIN [CIN Number], hereinafter referred to as "TransRentals" or the "Company"; and

2. Vendor: [Vendor Legal/Business Name], having its business address at [Vendor Address], hereinafter referred to as the "Vendor".

TransRentals and the Vendor are individually a "Party" and together the "Parties".

1. Purpose & Vendor Onboarding

1.1 The Vendor wishes to list and provide vehicle rental, transport or related services through the TransRentals platform.

1.2 Registration does not guarantee approval. TransRentals may approve, reject, suspend or request additional information from any Vendor at its reasonable discretion.

1.3 The Vendor shall provide accurate business, contact, bank, vehicle and service information at all times and promptly update any material change.

2. Documents & Verification

2.1 The Vendor shall provide all documents requested by TransRentals, including, where applicable: PAN, Aadhaar or other identity documents, GST registration, business registration documents, bank proof, cancelled cheque, vehicle RC, insurance, permits, fitness certificates and other regulatory documents.

2.2 The Vendor represents that all submitted documents are genuine, valid, current and lawfully obtained.

2.3 TransRentals may independently verify documents and may require originals, updated copies or additional verification.

2.4 Submission of false, forged, expired or misleading documents may result in immediate suspension, withholding of settlement pending investigation, termination and other lawful action.

3. Vendor Service Responsibilities

3.1 The Vendor is responsible for the vehicles, drivers, permits, insurance, maintenance, cleanliness, legal compliance and safe delivery of services supplied by the Vendor.

3.2 The Vendor shall provide the vehicle/service confirmed for the booking, or a suitable equivalent approved by the customer and TransRentals where required.

3.3 The Vendor shall ensure timely reporting, professional conduct and compliance with applicable transport, consumer and safety laws.

4. Bookings, Acceptance & Non-Performance

4.1 The Vendor shall respond to booking requests within the operational time specified by TransRentals.

4.2 Once a booking is accepted or confirmed, the Vendor shall perform the booking according to the confirmed terms.

4.3 Non-performance includes, without limitation: failure to provide a vehicle or driver, unjustified cancellation, significant delay, wrong vehicle, unsafe vehicle, refusal of confirmed service, material service deficiency or misleading information.

4.4 Repeated non-performance or poor service may result in warning, temporary suspension, reduced booking visibility, recovery of customer compensation or other legitimate costs where contractually applicable, or termination.

5. Pricing, Revenue Sharing & Platform Fees

5.1 Revenue sharing, commission, service fee or platform fee applicable to a booking shall be communicated through the applicable commercial terms, vendor dashboard, booking confirmation or written agreement between the Parties.

5.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Vendor shall not demand a higher amount from a customer than the confirmed booking terms, except for properly disclosed and authorized extra charges.

5.3 Taxes, GST, TDS and other statutory deductions shall be handled according to applicable law and the commercial arrangement between the Parties.

5.4 TransRentals may maintain booking and settlement records for calculating amounts payable to the Vendor.

6. Payment & Fund Settlement

6.1 Settlement shall be made according to the payment cycle communicated or agreed with the Vendor.

6.2 Settlement amounts may be adjusted for applicable platform fees, refunds, cancellations, chargebacks, taxes, TDS, agreed customer compensation, duplicate payments, fraud investigations or other legitimate booking-related adjustments.

6.3 The Vendor shall provide correct bank account details. TransRentals shall not be responsible for delays caused by incorrect or incomplete bank information provided by the Vendor.

6.4 The Vendor should raise settlement discrepancies within the reasonable review period communicated by TransRentals, along with supporting booking details.

7. Cancellations, Refunds & Disputes

7.1 Customer cancellations and refunds shall be handled according to the applicable booking terms and policies.

7.2 Where a Vendor-caused failure results in a customer refund or compensation, TransRentals may review the circumstances and adjust the Vendor settlement where permitted under the agreed commercial terms.

7.3 The Parties shall cooperate in resolving customer complaints, payment disputes and booking disputes and provide reasonable supporting information when requested.

8. Customer Data & Platform Protection

8.1 Customer contact details and booking information shall be used only for fulfilling the relevant booking and legitimate operational purposes.

8.2 The Vendor shall not misuse customer data, engage in fraudulent activity or make unauthorized representations on behalf of TransRentals.

8.3 Any platform bypass, direct solicitation or other conduct intended to improperly avoid agreed platform fees may be investigated and addressed under applicable commercial terms and law.

9. Performance Review & Business Meetings

9.1 The Parties may conduct monthly performance reviews covering booking acceptance, fulfilment, cancellations, delays, customer feedback, complaints, document compliance and settlement issues.

9.2 The Parties may conduct an annual business review to discuss performance, growth opportunities, commercial terms, service quality and future collaboration.

9.3 The Vendor shall reasonably cooperate with TransRentals in performance improvement and corrective actions where material issues are identified.

10. Suspension & Termination

10.1 TransRentals may suspend a Vendor account where there is reasonable concern regarding document validity, fraud, customer safety, serious service failure, legal non-compliance or material breach.

10.2 Either Party may terminate the commercial relationship in accordance with the agreed notice terms, subject to completion of legitimate pending settlements and investigations.

10.3 Serious misconduct, fraud, forged documents or conduct creating significant customer or legal risk may justify immediate suspension or termination, subject to applicable law.

11. Confidentiality & Intellectual Property

11.1 Each Party shall keep confidential non-public business, financial, customer and operational information received from the other Party and use it only for the business relationship.

11.2 TransRentals retains ownership of its brand, logo, platform, technology and materials. The Vendor may use approved TransRentals branding only as authorized.

12. Independent Relationship

The Vendor is an independent service provider. Nothing in this Agreement creates employment, agency, legal partnership or joint venture, and neither Party may bind the other without written authority.

13. Liability & Indemnity

13.1 Each Party remains responsible for its own breach, negligence and violation of applicable law.

13.2 The Vendor remains responsible for the legality, safety and operational compliance of its vehicles, drivers and services.

13.3 Any limitation of liability and indemnity provisions should be finalized by legal counsel based on TransRentals' commercial model and applicable law.

14. Dispute Resolution & Governing Law

14.1 The Parties shall first attempt to resolve disputes through good-faith discussion.

14.2 If a dispute remains unresolved, the Parties may pursue arbitration or other lawful dispute-resolution procedures as finalized in the executed Agreement.

14.3 This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. The final jurisdiction and arbitration provisions should be confirmed by legal counsel.

15. General

15.1 Amendments must be made in writing by authorized representatives of both Parties.

15.2 If any provision is held invalid, the remaining provisions shall continue to the extent legally permissible.

15.3 This Agreement and applicable written commercial terms constitute the understanding between the Parties regarding the Vendor relationship.
